MORNING LEADER Proposals for Loan.

Senator Charles Sumner, in his speech at Fanguil Hall, Boston, thus sums up the achievements of the Republican party: It is cometimes asked what, has the Republican party done? Look around and you will see everywhere what it has done. Its acts are already historic: slavery and the black law all abolished in the national capital; slavery interdicted in all the national territories; Hayti and Liberia recognized as independent republics in the DOLLARS. The Honds offered will bear an inter-tantly of nations; the foreign slave trade set of Six Per Centum, payable semi-annually in placed under the ban of a new treaty Coin, on the first days of May and November, an with Great Britain; the constwise slave testimony in the enational courts abolished and slaves set free in the robel States by of the triumphs of freedom, accomplished under the suspices of the Republican party. But this is not all. The Pacific railroad has been at last authorized; agricul-tural colleges have been provided for; have filustrated a whole administration—the National Government, with Abraham Lincoln as its head, has set on foot one of its power, with all its modern improve sents, may vie with any navy m the world, aration, illustrating how its transcendent labors by completing the triumph of the Union, and by establishing eace on the indestructible foundation of human rights. For myself, let me say, I tober 14th. The awards will be made by the Secret regard it as an honor to belong to this parso great in what it has already accomlahed, and greater still in what it now roposes. Other parties have performed their part and perished. The Republican party will live forever in the gratitude of ill who love liberty, and who rejoice in the tries will take up the strain, while the down-trodden and the oppressed every-where confess that their burdens have been lifted by an irresistible influence, which we are now assembled to advance.

Patriotic and Prolific. Under this head the Carlisle (Pa) Herild gives the following notice of a remark-

Last week Hiram R. Reese brought his men are the last of twelve brothers who have onlisted during this war. Four of them have been killed in the service and eight of them are yet in the army. The most remarkable feature is yet to come, and we confess our credulity was somewhat staggered when we heard the statenent; but the respectable character of the father, with the assertions of his neigh-bors, leave no room for doubt that Mr. Reme, after having sent twelve sons to serve his country, has yet thirteen sons at home, all of whom are under military age. This remarkable family reside in Warren township, Franklin county, of this State. The father is seventy-eight years old, and is enjoying vigorous health; these boys are the children of three mothers. On taking his leave of George and Jeremiah, the old men exhorted them to be good oys and good soldiers, warning them to guard well the reputation of their ten rothers who had gone to the field, as well as the thirteen youths left at home.

The N. Y. He ald on Pendleton. The New York Herald thus endeavors o explain why the campaign in Pennsy ania goes so hard against McClellan

The canvass in Pennsylania in regard to ieneral McClellan drags heavily. Why Personally he is a popular man-popul as a soldier, as a citizen, as a democrat as a man of promising abilities for statesman-ship, and as a loyal, patriotic, Union man. He is the idol of the uncontaminated young war democracy, and as their favorite his of the original facilities. name bore down all opposition at Chicago. True, the Convention piaced him upon a rickety and treacherous platform; but in rejecting it be is acquitted of its in-iamy! Why, then, this heavy, up-hill labor in advancing his standard among the people? This is the question, and here is the answer. The popular enthusiusm was awakened, East and West, by the name of McClellan, has been extinguished by its association with the name of Ponbody must be removed, and at once, if Mr. ment would carry the Pennsylvania October election.

After making six into hours,
And with manages almost dead,
New came unat one track was mended.
And the train soon west absad.
Soon we passed a place colled Johnstows
Filled with iron francists,
Where the people all were working.
Like a lot of Unsy bees.

Then we came to a great tunned;
Near me sal a pretty miss,
And when all was dark as midnight,
Quick from her I stole a his.
"the," she cried, the seople shouted,
And, before we reached the light,
I was pearing through the window
In my seat again all right. After yaming the great tunnel,
To a place we quickly came
Upon the highest mountain top,
And Cresson is its mule;
Many people in the summer.
To this pleasant spec regals,
I enjoy its cooling waters
And its pure, fresh mountain afr
